Prince Goes Public (Symbol: LUVE)

An Award-Winning Hedge Fund Trader Thinks Prince Mexico / S.A. (LUVE) Is the #1 PLAY of 2013!

The World's Richest Man, Carlos Slim, Is Playing A Role In The Distribution of Prince Products!

If you Google the name "Prince Sports", you'll come up with approximately 335,000,000 unique results. That's a lot of interest in one brand. For comparison purposes, a Google search for "Callaway Golf" yields 8,600,000 unique results and they are a New York Stock Exchange listed company traded around $7.00 a share. 40+ years as a worldwide industry leader resonates with multiple generations of tennis and sports enthusiasts.

Given Prince's rich history, the Wall Street crowd would say they've built up major Brand Equity. If translated into advertising exposure, Prince, through its sponsorships of some of the most visible and successful athletes on the planet, its sponsorship of some of the most important sporting events and its massive retail presence have probably racked up billions of dollars in media awareness through the years which makes the Prince brand a very BANKABLE COMMODITY!

Prince Expands Into Mexico with Huge Plans for South America!

The window of opportunity is closing by the minute. If you haven't read my new report, take the time to read below. I am recommending you act quickly! Opportunities like this do not present themselves often and they disappear in an instant.

Yours in profitable investing,

Rob Goldman

The Best Sporting Equipment Investment I've Ever Seen!

Prince is Poised To Make the Largest Entry Ever Into A Rapidly Growing Tennis Equipment Market!

Prince is Well-Known And Proven. You Won't Find A Better Sporting Equipment Buy!

LUVE Is An Immediate Buying Opportunity!

Sales Generated From An Exploding Tennis Market In Mexico Could Send LUVE Soaring Past 500% Gains This Year!

-  Prince stands to capture a significant piece of an estimated $266 billion dollar market by 2017!
-  Prince is a well-established, legendary sporting goods brand with millions of customers around the world.
-  Tennis is one of the fastest-growing sports in the world: there are approximately 30 million tennis players in the United States alone according to the USTA.
-  This is a ground floor opportunity to own a piece of a sporting goods icon. The growth potential is enormous!

Dear Investor,

A few months ago, I was approached to look into an iconic brand that had expanded into unchartered territories. As I dug into the details, I was so impressed with what I learned that I couldn't wait to get this report published fast enough.

Once again, their newest technologies seem poised to completely revolutionize an entire industry, like they've done several times during the past 4 decades.

LUVU Could Become a $7 Stock in 2013!

I am recommending you act quickly. Opportunities like this do not present themselves often and they disappear in an instant. The company is Prince Mexico & S.A.

Yes, I'm talking about the famed tennis product manufacturer who's been a global leader for over 4 decades. I strongly believe this iconic sports brand has SERVED UP AN ABSOLUTE ACE FOR YOU!!!

Please don't write this off as just another aggressive stock promotion. You'll be sorry. This is a very real expansion of a global leader in its industry for the past few decades. This isn't an exploratory, early stage, non-revenue producing gold mine play or another hope and a prayer green energy savings Hail Mary.

The sporting goods market has experienced explosive growth lately. Prince Mexico S.A. is one industry leader that you should seriously consider adding to your portfolio TODAY. This opportunity represents both my #1 momentum pick as well as my #1 growth pick of 2013.

LUVU Is Giving Investors A Once-In-A-Lifetime Experience To Cash In On A Regional Expansion Of An Iconic Sporting Goods Brand!

Anyone who's ever picked up a tennis racquet has heard of Prince and their green and white 6 letter logo is as recognizable to racquet sports enthusiasts as Callaway is to golfers or Louisville Slugger is to baseball players.

The entire sporting goods sector has been red hot significantly outperforming the broader market. In fact, Ticker Spy's Sporting Goods Retailer Stocks index has beat the S&P 500 by 519% since the index launched in January 2008.

LUVU holds exclusive rights to sell all "Prince" products and accessories in Mexico with huge plans of expanding into South America.

INVESTOR ALERT!

Company: Prince Tennis

OTCQB Symbol: LUVU

Current Price: around $1.05

Price Target: $7.00

Profit Strategies

Short-term: Sell on a double or triple

Long-term: Hold portion for potential 600% gain!

Prince is eyeing a piece of a $200 billion dollar market.

The company has seen strong sales growth throughout its recent years of operations. Prince Mexico is experiencing high retail demand and looking to expand into larger distribution channels throughout Mexico and specific South American markets like Brazil and Argentina over the next 36 months. This represents an immensely profitable opportunity for LUVÉ.

Increased sales could rocket LUVÉ to my $7.00 target at any time!

With this expansion, the company is projecting to earn sales of $15,000,000+ by 2015 in Mexico alone. If you factor in Prince's planned expansion into South America, the combined sales numbers for LUVÉ could be staggering.

LUVÉ is a great company with good management, a proven track record, and an established customer base. It could be a monster money maker!

-Rob Goldman

The World's Richest Man is Helping Serve Up Prince Products!

Carlos Slim is Involved with the Distribution of Prince!

Mexican tycoon Carlos Slim retained his position atop Forbes magazine's annual list of the world's billionaires with an estimated worth of $69 billion.

On April 2, 1997, Sears, Roebuck and Company, now owned by Sears Holdings Corporation, formed a strategic alliance with Grupo Carso, company owned by Mexican businessman Carlos Slim Helú. The alliance included Sears agreeing to sell 85% of its share of Sears Mexico to Grupo Carso.

As of 2007, Grupo Carso now owns 100% of Sears Mexico. With Prince products set to fly off shelves, you can bet that Carlos Slim will do everything in his power to ensure that it is a profitable streamline for Sears Mexico. Everyone wants to sell more Prince products!

Prince currently has distribution in retailers, which range from supermarket, department store, sports store and footwear shop chains, as well as pro shops throughout Mexico, both in tennis clubs and on the street. Prince Mexico's key established accounts include:

WalMart Mexico wholly owned subsidiary of Walmart USA, over 2000 locations

Sears Mexico wholly owned subsidiary of Grupo Carso, owned by billionaire Carlos Slim Helu

Liverpool department store chain in Mexico, over 195 locations

Marti large sport store in Mexico with hundreds of locations

Prince Mexico is seeking to obtain equity or debt financing for the amount of USD$1.5-7.5 million to purchase inventory to meet increasingly high demand, service numerous large retail stores simultaneously, and maintain sufficient cash flow throughout the 90-day buying process as the company expands and increases distribution into larger retailers such as Walmart, Sears, Liverpool and Marti.

With the market potential from a handful of major retailers like Wal-Mart, LUVE could fly past $7.00 this year!

This target is seen as attainable through the market's response in existing retail channels, high customer demand in product trial testing in Walmart, and an excellent management team to grow the company.

Prince is an Industry Powerhouse

If you're not familiar with this dominant global brand, Prince got its start as the manufacturer of a tennis ball machine known as the "Little Prince" in 1970, and it later diversified into different sectors of the sport. Howard Head developed the first oversize racquet for Prince in 1976. Today, Prince is an industry leader that manufactures tennis rackets, footwear, apparel, strings and accessories.

prince®

The first Prince tennis racket was the Prince Classic; It was the first oversize tennis racket ever produced

Star Power:
Prince has endorsed superstars such as Maria Sharapova, Jennifer Capriati, current #4 in the world David Ferrer, the world's #1 men's doubles team the Bryan brothers, and the #1 ranked American men's player John Isner. Prince USA also sponsors the current junior boys and girls #1 players in the world!

In 2005, Prince introduced O3 technology, which created higher racket speed and a larger sweet spot

Time-Tested:
Many top-ranked pro players attribute their success to the superior quality of their Prince tennis racket!

Prince's Natural Gut tennis string is the most commonly used string among pro players and has been labeled "The Best Of The Best"

In 1977, Prince developed the first graphite tennis racket, which soon became the industry standard

LUVU is Giving You A Chance To Own A Piece Of A Sporting Goods Legend!

With LUVU just starting to trade publicly, the window of opportunity to enter this equity ticker early is closing by the minute. If you haven't heard about this opportunity, feel lucky as that's an indicator that it's not too late.

Word is about to spread quickly because on Wall Street, cream rises and it won't take the street very long to recognize this gem, as they don't come around too often. Please take the time to read my report on my #1 Pick of 2013.

LUVU is by far one of the best buys in the market today. Just 5,000 shares of this established company could easily deliver over $30,000 in profit this year. But, hold on for another year and you could double your gains!

-Rob Goldman

LUVU Seems Poised to Take the Public Markets in STRAIGHT SETS!

You have little time left to capture a ground-floor position in LUVU!

If you act on this report early enough, you can load up on LUVU today around $1.00... but don't hesitate to load up on LUVU even at $3.00!

Though I've played tennis before, ask anyone who's never played tennis, attended a professional tennis match, or followed the brand on Twitter or Facebook: You can be sure they'll recognize Prince and the Prince logo— a testament to the brand's name recognition.

And I fully expect us to be riding this name power all the way to the bank.....

But let's stop talking about the rich history of Prince USA and its global name recognition and talk about how Prince Mexico S.A. is giving us a chance to build our own fortunes through LUVU.

This is a very successful brand about to expand into some of the fastest growing markets on Earth.

Very rarely does a company come along that gives regular investors like us an iron clad shot at grabbing some fast cash. But LUVU is doing exactly that!

Do you realize what LUVÉ has done by signing an exclusive licensing deal to distribute Prince's industry leading products throughout Mexico?

Like no other company in recent times, LUVÉ is giving us a chance to profit like an Insider.

Prince already has existing relationships with the top retailers in the region and they're eager to carry more of Prince's lines. Only inventory stands in their way and the company is working on the financing for this tiny hurdle. This will all but ensure success of LUVÉ- and those who act on LUVÉ today!

And why are these huge companies so anxious to carry Prince products?

Because like me, they know this relationship can be very profitable –and they didn't become "major retailers" by passing up money making opportunities like the one we're getting with LUVÉ.

And with the name Prince behind it – jumping at the chance to cash in on this brand's star power is an obvious choice.

All of this translates to one word: PROFITS.

The shares we can buy today could very well be selling at a $6 premium when all is said and done! If this happens, it's those who get in early who stand to make the most...

And with Prince USA putting their full brand weight and power behind LUVÉ – I can't think of a better time to buy LUVÉ than NOW!

Prince Is Looking To Expand Its Market Into An Area That's Virtually Untouched- With Potential For Huge Profits As A Result!

Tennis is one of the most played sports in Mexico along with soccer and basketball. Consumer spending in apparel and sports activities in Mexico is approximately a $4.18 billion market employing more than 200,000 people. This offers a very interesting niche market for high-end equipment that could prove to be extremely profitable for many years to come.

LUVU is something that you can't ignore! I've seen it with my own eyes- Prince's entrance into such a large, untapped market could bring it from $1.00 to $7.00 in just 1 year!

You need to get some money in this right now. I'd scoop up shares even at $3.00!

and I'm not the only one...

Award-Winning Hedge Fund Trader Thinks LUVU is the Top

Play of 2013

For disclosure purposes, this trader will remain anonymous as he reserves the right to purchase shares of LUVU in the open market. From herein he will be referred to as "Trader".

"Trader" was a junior Portfolio Manager for a New York based hedge fund with approximately $450 million under management. In 2008, he received the Trader of the Year Award for performance on his equity portfolio and believes that LUVU could be the hottest stock play of 2013. See his analysis below:

The Sporting Goods Industry is one of the Hottest Sectors in the Entire Market!

Since the market bottom in 2009, it's hard to find a sector that has outperformed the sporting goods industry. While mainstream investors stay focused on technology, financials, gold, and oil, the sporting goods sector has absolutely exploded providing savvy investors with colossal returns.

Did You Know?

From its October, 2009 low, the S&P 500 has gained approximately 100% to its high in 2013. Normally, a 100% gain would be impressive. But, the gains marked in the sporting goods industry dwarf that of the S&P 500. Take a look:

LUVU is hitting the market at just the right time. The sporting goods industry is red hot and investors who made millions with sporting goods stocks in the past five years will be aggressively searching for the next big score. With tennis being one of the fastest growing sports in the world, LUVU is setup perfectly and should attract A LOT of attention in 2013.

Brazil, Argentina, South & Central America: the Hottest

Economies in the World

Possibly the most attractive aspect of an investment in LUVU, is their exclusive distribution rights to all Prince products sold in Mexico. This means that no other company can sell or resell Prince products in Mexico other than LUVU. In addition, LUVU is planning a massive expansion into major South American countries.

Why is this so significant?

Central and South America currently maintain some of the hottest and fastest growing economies in the world. Brazil, for example, has become many investors' "go to" economy for growth investments. It's become nearly impossible to read a Wall Street Journal edition or watch a CNBC episode and not read or hear Wall Street buzzing about Brazil.

- In 2010, Brazil experienced Growth Domestic Product (GDP) growth of 7.5%
- In 2011, Brazil's net capital inflow was up 168% to $62.279 billion. Trade accounts received a capital inflow of $43.95 billion.
- The International Monetary Fund predicts Brazil to overtake France to become the 5th largest economy in the world within the next 3-5 years.

Other red hot economies in Central and South America (2011 GDP growth rates):

Argentina	–	8.9%
Bolivia	–	5.2%
Chile	–	6.0%
Columbia	–	5.9%
Ecuador	–	7.8%
Mexico	–	3.9%
Panama	–	10.6%
Paraguay	–	6.9%
Peru	–	6.8%
Venezuela	–	4.2%

Compare these GDP growth rates to that of the United States, 1.7% in 2011, and the profit potential of an investment in LUVU really starts to take shape.

Just How Strong are the Economies in Central and South America?

- 👁️ Brazil Unemployment Rate: 4.6% (record low)
- 👁️ Mexico Unemployment Rate: 4.47%
- 👁️ United States Unemployment Rate: 7.9%

As I dive deeper into these statistics, I can't help but notice that the United States and Central & South America are heading in opposite directions. With an overwhelming number of economies growing exponentially faster than that of the United States, it's no wonder the smart investment minds of Wall Street are pumping billions of dollars into Central & South American plays. And LUVU could be next.

When making good investments, one word comes to mind; growth. And the story behind LUVU is overflowing with it.

- Tennis is one of the fastest growing sports in the world.
- The sporting goods industry is one of the fastest growing sectors in the market, far outpacing the S&P 500.
- Central & South America contain some of the fastest growing economies in the world.

LUVU represents one of the most attractive investment opportunities of the last decade. No other publicly traded company stands as poised to take advantage of these profit filled markets. For these reasons...

It's Only a Matter of Time Before Other Hedge Fund Traders Hear About LUVU!

10 ROCK-SOLID REASONS TO INVEST IN LUVU TODAY!

Reason #1: Controls Exclusive Rights To A Leading Brand

Sole distribution rights to a strong, well-positioned brand: Prince. The Prince brand has been a leading tennis company since the early 1970s. Prince has been an innovator in racquet, string and shoe technologies for decades.

Reason #2: A Newly Public Brand Expansion Play

LUVU represents the first ever opportunity for the average investor like you and I to invest in and profit from a sports legacy. Prince has been an industry pioneer and leader for over 40 years and is now really starting to heat up with their expansion into some of the most attractive markets in the world.

Reason #3: Top Players Building Brand Awareness

Prince has leveraged its international exposure with some of the sport's most elite athletes, including Nikolay Davydenko, Jennifer Capriati, Patrick Rafter,

Jimmy Connors, the Bryan Brothers, David Ferrer, John Isner and Martina Navratilova. Their success at the highest level of competition has heightened consumer interest in the brand as well as the sport of tennis overall.

Reason #4: Target Market Opportunity

The tennis market in Mexico is growing at an average rate of 7% per year. In Mexico, there are 1,908 tennis courts and 235 tennis clubs throughout the country. Mexico is the largest country for imported sporting goods in Latin America, dominating 60.98% market share at $266 million value. These factors, together with a 1.1% population growth (over 1.1 million people annually) indicate a strong, viable market for Prince Mexico.

The Market

- Mexico is the largest country for importing sporting goods in Latin America
- Over 60% market share valued at USD $266 million
- Annual 1.1% population growth (equal to 1.1 million people)
- Prince is a world recognized racquet and apparel branded company
- Both Mexico and South America have much room for growth

www.princemexico.com.mx

Reason #5: The Sports Equipment Market is Growing

Expected to be a $72.8 billion market value by the end of 2016. In the global market, racquet sport equipment makes up 8.3% at $5.3 billion and golf equipment makes up 17.7% at $11.5 billion. That's a combined $16.8 billion dollar market... And that doesn't include clothing and apparel!

Reason #6: Rapid Revenue Growth Ramp Up

LUVÉ is projecting to earn sales of $7,500,000 and $15,000,000 in 2014 and 2015 in Mexico alone. Revenue generated from a further expansion into South American countries could be substantially higher.

Rock Solid Reason #7: Politically Connected Management

When doing business south of the U.S. border it's all about who you know. And Prince Mexico President and CEO, Duncan Forbes, has some of the strongest business and political relationships around. This will allow the company to gain access to large retail customers and streamline the entire distribution process.

ESPN Interviews Duncan Forbes!

Reason #8: Increased Sales

Prince Mexico has had discussions with large retail customers such as WalMart Mexico, Sears Mexico, Liverpool and Marti. These clients have already expressed interest and have already sold Prince products; however, they want to sell them on an even bigger scale!

Reason #9: Population Growth Trends

South America has seen a steady population growth over past years, growing by 1.2% (South America) and 1.1% (Mexico) in 2011. Interest in the sport of tennis is also increasing. Tennis still holds a commanding lead among traditional sports in the percentage growth in participation since 2000, according to data from the Physical Activity Council. In fact, tennis is the only traditional sport to have a positive growth rate overall from 2000 to 2011.

Reason #10: Patented Technology and Industry Leading Products

Prince's Natural Gut tennis string is the most commonly used string among pro players and has been labeled the "Rolls Royce" of tennis strings; simply the best of the best. Prince continues to be the industry leader in research, development and game-changing product innovations. It is widely recognized as being the first to market with many of the most relevant technologies of the past 40 years. Its graphite racquet has become the industry standard. Today, Prince engineers products in all categories including racquets, apparel, footwear, balls, strings, grips, bags, machines and accessories.

This is why I see LUVE reaching $7.00 in 2013... with much more to come in the years ahead!

The Market For Tennis In Mexico And South America Is Opening Up Huge New Opportunities For Prince!

Central and South America currently maintain some of the hottest and fastest growing economies in the world. Brazil, for example, is expected to become the 5th largest economy in the world by 2015.

Tennis is one of the fastest growing sports in Central and South America. It's not a coincidence that LUVE is focusing there. The demand for Prince products here is high and the market is virtually untouched.

Top Ranked Players Love Prince!

David Ferrer, the #4 ranked men's player in the world and #1 ranked Spanish player in the world ahead of the well-known Rafael Nadal, attributes much of his success to the industry leading quality of his Prince racket:

"I try to do my best on every point, and win as many matches as possible. It is important that I use the best frame for my game – and that has always been Prince. They support me with the best racquets to raise my game."

Tennis is Enjoying a "Golden Era"

- On-site attendance at ATP World Tour events matched record numbers with close to 4.4 million spectators.
- The US Open is the largest attended annual sporting event in the world.
- The Barclays ATP World Tour Finals, in its fourth year at The O2, welcomed its 1 millionth fan and set a new record attendance of 263,229.
- Audiences on television and online continue to grow, with total broadcast hours of ATP events growing 30% and more than 4 million fans a month visiting ATPWorldTour.com, as well as more than 40 million people following the ATP, its players and tournaments through social media.

A growing tennis audience and viewership equates to more potential Prince customers. These tennis fanatics are seeing top ranked athletes thrive on the courts while using Prince gear!

Prize money on the ATP World Tour is set to increase 20% from 2012-2014, exceeding USD $95 million for the 1st time by 2014, whilst prize money at the Barclays ATP World Tour Finals continues to increase significantly with the 2012 purse up 10% to USD $5.5 million and increasing to $6.5 million by 2014.

At Grand Slam level, ongoing discussions initiated by the ATP with each of the Slams brought about prize money increases for players in 2012 and, in particular, significant increases for the 2013 Australian Open.

Pop Culture is Increasing Brand Awareness for Prince!

The sport of tennis is growing at a faster rate than ever before. A list celebrities show up in masses and inhabit the most highly visible seats, some with a ticket price of $25,000 for the event. In the past year we've seen Jay -Z & Beyonce, Keith Urban & Nicole Kidman, Adam Sandler, Sophia Vergara, Eva Longoria, Brooklyn Decker, Kevin Spacey, Sean Connery, Alec Baldwin, Donald Trump, Kanye West, Kim Kardashian, David Beckham, Tony Parker, Jennifer Aniston, Vince Vaughn and countless others show up at the 4 "Major" tennis tournaments.

Even the most influential arbiter of fashion, Anna Wintour, Editor in Chief at Vogue magazine, has been a fixture courtside as tennis has become the new "cool." Prince Mexico S.A. has picked up on this trend and plans to leverage it for reaching a new generation of sports enthusiasts.

Prince Mexico S.A. is thinking much bigger. They're going to capitalize on the trend that marries aspirational lifestyle brands with modern pop culture. Prince Mexico S.A. could be to that region of the world what Adidas, Puma or Nike was to the USA during the go go 80's & the Hip Hop revolution. The opportunity is enormous as the trend is just starting to catch on in those countries.

Prince is a titan in the sporting goods industry. LUVU won't stay around $1.00 for long!

Could you imagine how quickly LUVU could go viral and spread throughout the financial media and turn up in conversation at every water cooler with so much celebrity exposure?

Prince is far from a start-up. The company is in a strategic position to be able to marry 40+ years of brand equity with explosive regional growth.

I'm getting goose bumps just thinking about how quickly the momentum could begin to reach avalanche proportions!

Location, Location, Location!

Location

www.princemexico.com.mx

Distribution and product shipment can be a logistics nightmare. However, Prince Mexico S.A.'s head office is strategically located in the center of Mexico close to the western coastline. This allows for quick and direct distribution channels which in turn will result in faster delivery times and lower transportation costs for the company. Prince is planning on taking Central and South America by storm.

Prince's game-changing expansion could quickly catapult LUVU into triple-digit gains for today's shareholder!

This is an ideal opportunity for every investor. Conservative investors can move on LUVU and lock in a long term profit 6 times greater than their initial investment.

Aggressive investors looking for quick profit could easily triple their money before year's end. I'm convinced that both scenarios can play out for you... if you act immediately.

Few people know about LUVU at this early stage- it just began trading. But, don't expect that to last. From what I've seen in my research, LUVU is going to come out of the gates and explode in a very big way. I cannot guarantee that my report will get to you before LUVU starts to run up, but I still wouldn't hesitate to buy even at $3.00 or $4.00.

With the 2013 marketing plans management has shared with me, LUVU could readily hit $3 to $4 by mid year and $6 or $7 by year's end. But hang on for another year and LUVU could be selling even higher!

GAME, SET, PROFIT!

Who Am I? And Why Should You Seriously Consider My Stock Recommendations?

My name is Rob Goldman and my track record proves my recommendations can be huge winners for investors who follow me. I have over 20 years of investment and company research experience as a senior research analyst and as a portfolio and mutual fund manager.

My methods have been perfected to the point where I can show you how to triple your money in 30 days or less while risking almost nothing.

During my tenure as a sell-side analyst, I was a senior member of Piper Jaffray's Technology research team. Prior to joining Piper, I led Josephthal & Co.'s Washington-based Emerging Growth Research Group. In addition to my sell-side experience, I served as Chief Investment Officer of a boutique investment management firm where, under my direction, the Firm was ranked as the 4th best performing Small Cap Growth Manager in the country by Money Manager Review. I also served as CIO of Blue and White Investment Management, where I

My long term outlook for Prince Mexico S.A. is aggressively bullish. Their global brand awareness is well-established and unmatched by competitors.

Just think of where this could lead. Tennis is one of the fastest growing sports in the world and Central and South America contain some of the fastest growing economies in the world. By 2015, Brazil is expected to overtake France to become the fifth-largest economy in the world.

Prince Mexico S.A. will be taking full advantage of an exploding market that is already a multi-billion dollar opportunity. As a result, we could see LUVÉ trading around 7.00 within the next 1 to 3 years.

Do your due diligence and be ready to contact your broker about LUVÉ. This opportunity is huge and is taking off right in front of us.
