

... IMMEDIATE BUY: IGEX ... INDO GLOBAL EXCHANGE (IGEX) ... BUY NOW: SHARE PRICE: $0.75 ...

IT'S DÉJÀ VU ALL OVER AGAIN!

Here's your chance to duplicate the 1,289% gain E-Trade racked up when U.S. traders embraced online services.

Now, this Indonesian start up, Indo Global Exchange (IGEX) is doing in Asia, what E-Trade, Schwab, and TD Ameritrade did in the U.S.!

Buy IGEX now while you can still get it around 75-cents a share and you could...

✓ Turn $10,000 into $75,615 in six months or less!

I've spent a lot of time in Indonesia recently, and the most astonishing thing I can tell you about online investing there is that, until just recently, it didn't exist.

Indonesia's estimated 30 million sophisticated and Internet-connected individual investors had no all-inclusive online trading service whatsoever!

There was simply nothing there that duplicated the services we enjoy in the U.S. from the likes of E-Trade, Ameritrade and Schwab.

That's hard to understand, because, as I walked the cities of Indonesia, iPhones, iPads and Droids were everywhere.

I can tell you, Indonesia is a mobile-driven market. Mobile phone subscription in Indonesia – a country with over 240 million people – reached 290 million in 2012 as people frequently carried two or more devices.

Facebook has stated that it has 64 million active users in Indonesia. This puts the country in Facebook's top five largest markets by users.

This is a savvy, Internet-connected population with a fast-growing investor class that shares a thirst for fast profits, but a complete lack of online trading services.

Indonesia is bustling with new, young wealth that has helped to make the island of Macau (just one hour from Hong Kong) the gambling capital of the world. Known as "The Oriental Las Vegas," last year, Macau generated $38 billion in casino revenue, six times more than Las Vegas.

My point being that online trading is going to have tremendous appeal to this newly-wealthy and fast-growing Indonesian community!

It's hard as it is to believe, until just now, there has been no comprehensive online trading service for Indonesia's 30 million potential traders.

It's especially dumbfounding given that, with a gross domestic product totaling US$2.2 trillion, Indonesia is the world's fourth largest economy and right up there with China and India in terms of growth. In fact, according to a report from the Boston Consulting Group...

"Along with China and India, Indonesia is expected to be one of the fastest-growing Asian markets in future years,"

CHINA

INDIA

INDONESIA

And, here's the killer,

The majority of wealthy Indonesians still have their assets in cash or money markets!

That can only be explained by the absence of the kind of online trading services that would empower Indonesians to take personal control of their investments. It's an incredible opportunity for an online trading service to bring those estimated 30 million potential investors up to speed.

Now, finally Indonesia has an online trading service!

Indo Global Exchange (IGEX) is a new, but cutting-edge Internet company launched to meet the online needs of Indonesia's estimated 30 million individual investors.

Enter Indo Global Exchange (IGEX)!

Indo Global is about to do in Indonesia, what E-Trade, Ameritrade and Schwab did in the U.S.

When online trading made it big in the U.S., E-Trade stock exploded by an incredible 1,289% in just 9 months.

If you'd had $10,000 invested in E-Trade, you could have cashed out in just 9 months with a cool $128,900!

I'm telling you, it's about to happen in Indonesia! Only this time, it could happen even faster.

Back in the mid-90s, when E-Trade took the U.S. investor community by storm, there was no iPhone, no smartphones or iPads of any sort. The mobile market was in its infancy then, but in Indonesia now, everyone is connected.

You've got the potential for some 30 million "connected" investors just begging for the online trading services this company offers.

This is a total no-brainer!

Stop and think: can you remember what investing was like before you had the ability to place your own trades and access your account with the click of a mouse?

In America, E-Trade, Ameritrade and Schwab revolutionized personal investing and made Billions of dollars for their shareholders.

The market in Indonesia is massive. By offering transparent, honest global brokerage services, IGE is positioned in the market as the first company to deliver such services

IGE is the first firm to offer Indonesians the best trading software, and the most secure bank solutions

That's why it's obvious to me that here in Indonesia, no hard sell is needed. Personal online investing is what every investor everywhere wants and needs.

In fact, Indo Global's Internet Trading Platform: www.igexcorp.com just won the Outstanding Contribution to the FX Industry award at the World Finance Awards 2013.

I can tell you, the World Finance Foreign Exchange Awards are highly regarded in the industry for recognising innovation, excellence and best practice across the FX market. IGE's trading platform is available in 16 languages. That's impressive even to a seasoned market professional like myself.

Indonesia is Booming!

The purchasing power of Indonesia's ever-richer population of over 240 million can be seen in the country's increasing per capita GDP. Indonesia's 20 percent annual growth in household wealth is on a par with that of fast-growing China and India.

Foreign direct investment in Indonesia hit a new high in the fourth quarter of 2012, as a growing middle class continued to attract investments and companies to the country. (Wall Street Journal 23 Jan 2013)

- The Director General for technology-based industry at Indonesia's Industry Ministry, recently reported that around 50 Japanese auto-part makers will invest a combined $600 million this year to support Japanese car makers' production in Indonesia.
- Freeport Mining (NYSE:FCX; market cap $20.32 B) has projected 2013 gold sales to be 37 percent higher than 2012, primarily reflecting higher ore grades at its Grasberg Indonesia mine.
- Auto sales in Indonesia soared 25 percent in 2012 from a year earlier, supported by growing middle class consumers and relatively low interest rates, data from the industry showed on Friday.

Indo Global Exchange (IGE) was officially launched in Jakarta on January 1st, 2013 with its first office in the prestige's Stock Exchange Building. Business is exploding and the company has already increased its Jakarta employee numbers by 40%.

IGE will continue to add staff as the company expands and expects to have over 100 employees by year's end to capitalize on its early market success.

I make my living as one of Wall Street's top traders.
Nobody knows the value of superior online trading tools better than me.

Let me tell you something, I don't often do these stock publicity pieces. I got excited about this stock and agreed to get behind Indo Global Exchange for 3 reasons:

1. A long-time friend and associate asked me to take a look at the company and its market. I've spent a lot of time in Indonesia. I've seen how these people love to gamble and I didn't need to be sold on the idea that the area is "begging" for online trading services.
2. As a professional trader, I know the critical importance of having the kind of real-time, accurate and dependable charts Indo Global now makes available.
3. I remember very well watching what happened to the stocks of Ameritrade and E-trade back in the mid-90s when they took the U.S. by storm. Online trading changed my professional life, but those two stocks, together with Schwab made millions for the investors who got in on them. It's obvious to me that Indo Global is about to do the same thing in Indonesia, so I have no hesitation about getting wholeheartedly behind this one!

I hope you'll consider what I've had to say. And, not to brag, but to lend some credibility to what I'm saying, you may be interested to know...

In trading circles, I am known as the professional's professional. In fact, until I started BottomLine Advisory service, I worked exclusively with full-time traders, hedge fund managers and big wigs on Wall Street and Chicago's commodity markets.
